

A Community Forum on Water

with Maude Barlow

“The growth of a democratic global water justice movement is a critical and positive development that will bring needed accountability, transparency and public oversight to the water crisis as conflicts over water loom on the horizon.”

-Maude Barlow

May 1, 2008
7:00 p.m.
Centennial
Secondary School
Belleville 613-968-7003 ext.25
email: osstf29@lks.net

sponsored by Hastings-Prince Edward Elementary and Secondary School Teachers' Federations and the Algonquin-Lakeshore Catholic Teachers' Association